

REPUBLIC OF NAMIBIA

MINISTRY OF LABOUR, INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS AND EMPLOYMENT CREATION

MEDIA RELEASE

For Immediate Release: 21 August 2023 - Windhoek

WEBSITE BEARING SAME NAME AS NAMIBIA INTEGRATED EMPLOYMENT INFORMATION SYSTEM (NIEIS)

The Ministry of Labour, Industrial Relations, and Employment Creation became aware of a website bearing the name “NIEIS Namibia” accessible through URL: <https://nieisnamibia.com/> by an unknown host. This website contains a name similar to the one administered by this Ministry in the name of Namibia Integrated Employment Information System popularly known as NIEIS accessible via: <https://nieis.namibiaatwork.gov.na/>.

The NIEIS under the Ministry is entrusted with the function driven from the Employment Service Act 8. 2011, which is to collect, store and update information concerning: names, qualifications and occupations of job seekers; vacancies in the labour market; specialized skills and qualifications possessed by Namibian citizens and permanent residents and employers in Namibia.

The Ministry wishes to caution the general public and all stakeholders not to confuse this website i.e. <https://nieisnamibia.com/> with that of the Ministry i.e. <https://nieis.namibiaatwork.gov.na/>. The Ministry advises that it possesses no knowledge of the source of this website and it is in no way related to the Ministry nor to the Employment Services Bureau.

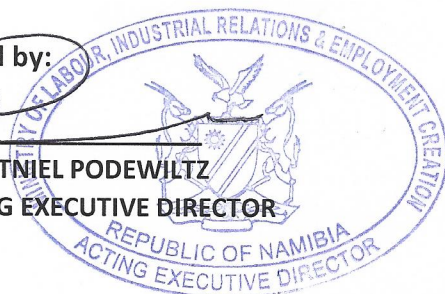

The Namibia Integrated Employment Information System (NIEIS) is an intellectual property of the Government of the Republic of Namibia, and any unauthorized use of the same name in any manner is unlawful and punishable by law. The public is therefore warned to refrain from using the above-mentioned name without authorization. The Ministry will take all necessary steps in this regard.

The Ministry remains committed to safeguard the interests and well-being of the public and will continue to take proactive measures to address emerging threats to maintain a secure and reliable labour environment.
